NOTABLE APPELLATE CASES

Andrews v. State, ex rel, Department of Public Safety, 2014 OK CIV APP 19, (Cert Denied Jan. 2014). Set Oklahoma precedent, contradicting the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals, that paramedics are not approved to withdraw blood for Oklahoma Implied Consent purposes. Affected many cases across Oklahoma.

Ward & Lee, PLC v. City of Claremore, 2014 OK CIV APP 1 (Cert Denied Oct 2013). - Lawsuit versus the City of Claremore, Police Chief Stan Brown, City Clerk Sarah Sharp, and Records Supervisor Julie Spurling to force the City to comply with the Oklahoma Open Records Act. Set Oklahoma precedent that police dash cam video and audio recordings are subject to the provisions of the Oklahoma Open Records Act. Affected hundreds of thousands of Oklahoma citizens and press.
